Any pool rule violation brought to the attention of the Brookwood Place board will be examined promptly by board members. Special board meetings will be called as needed. The Brookwood Place board has obtained legal counsel and will not hesitate to take disciplinary action against any violator of our pool rules.

Recommendations & Additional Information

1. Brookwood Place board members and all responsible adult residents have the right to intervene when they witness any act or behavior that violates the pool rules. The recommended intervention procedure is as follows:
 - a. If you do not know the violator, ask for his/her name and address.
 - b. If violator is not a resident, ask him/her to leave pool area immediately.
 - c. If non-resident violator refuses to leave, call the police.
 - d. If violator is a resident, ask the violator to stop.
 - e. If resident violator does not cease, ask him/her to leave pool area immediately.
 - f. If resident violator refuses to leave, call parent (in case of unaccompanied minor), and/or call pool coordinator or board member, and/or call police, depending on seriousness of violation.
 - g. Always contact pool coordinator and provide as many details about occurrence as possible (day, time, name of violator(s), what happened, etc...).
2. Due to limited parking, please walk to the pool if possible.
3. If you wish to rent the pool, contact the pool coordinator.
4. If you have lost your pool key or if you find someone else's, contact the pool coordinator.
5. When in doubt, ask the pool coordinator or any Brookwood Place board member!
